Have you ever thought about your life being a blessing? Have you ever counted the innumerable blessings you received? Many people usually don't find time to reflect. They are pre-occupied with a lot of things, and take things for granted.

Bless the Lord O my soul, and all that is with in me, bless His holy name! Bless the Lord O my soul, and forget not all His benefits.
(Psalm 103: 1-2)

The season of Lent is a time to reflect on our lives, a time to focus on the cross, and a time to gaze at the King of glory. We should try to fathom the agony that our Saviour went through, to be able to understand the greatest blessing in our lives. This should transform us to be ever thankful to the selfless, supreme love and compassion that flowed down the cross of Calvary. Blessings galore have been sealed for eternity through the resurrection of our Lord, and it becomes a priceless treasure as we experience the resurrected Christ personally.

May the risen Lord, who shattered the grave and triumphed over death, make His face shine on us. Let us wholeheartedly bless the Lord at all times. Hallelujah!

Achen's Message

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ

Mark 16: 6 says that "Do not be alarmed. You seek Jesus of Nazareth, who was crucified. He has risen". This word spoken by the angel of God is the hope of every Christian believer. Although churches are a community with many theological views, all churches live on the basis of the resurrection of Jesus Christ. Mary Magdalene was the first to speak to the resurrected Jesus. Her only qualification is that she left everything and loved Jesus.

Jesus told that If anyone wants to follow Him, he must deny himself and follow Jesus. Mary succeeded in that. If we do not succeed, it means that we do not welcome Jesus into our lives. May this period of lent help you to examine yourself, correct your mistakes and accept Jesus into your mind. I pray that this Easter will be an experience of our spiritual ascension in Jesus.

You all know that the worship in our church started as before. Therefore, everyone should be encouraged to attend worship services every week. You should all come, especially on Maundy Thursday and Good Friday worship.

Heart beats Christian singing service will be held on April 23rd as part of our thirty-fifth anniversary. Everyone should participate in this online singing service. You should inform all your relatives and friends about this.

Happy Easter in advance.

May God bless us all.
